PHOTOGRAPHY FOR WELL-LOVED DOGS

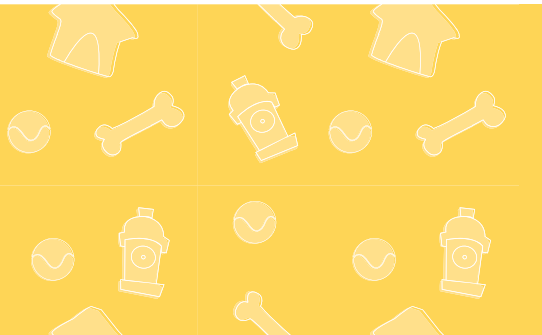

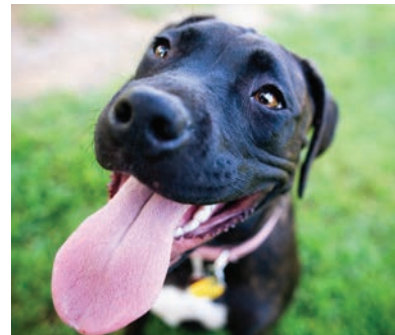

Hi, I'm Josh Solar. And I LOVE dogs. Always have; always will.

It just so happens I am also a photographer. I decided a while ago that my dog photography needed a place all to itself, so Banana Abby was born.

Why Banana Abby? The name is inspired by our own basset hound, Banana Abby. We just love her to pieces. She's our first family dog, and, well, we may be a little biased, but we think she's the most lovable little dog you'll ever meet.

Seeing how quickly she became a real member of our family, I realized that the bonds between humans and our four-legged friends are just as strong as the ones we share with our loved ones.

My focus for Banana Abby is to capture those bonds. Don't worry, I shoot plenty of pet portraits. But my focus is on YOU + your dog, and the connection you share.

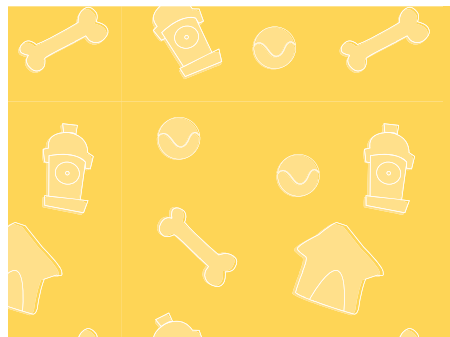

“The dog is a gentleman;
I hope to go to his heaven, not man’s.”
~ Mark Twain

PORTRAIT SESSION: $200

You'll get 1 to 1½ hours of shooting time at the location of your choice (in the Kansas City area), on-line proofing and an in-person ordering session.

THANK YOU FOR HELPING US MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

Every dog deserves a loving home.
And every human deserves a loving dog!

We found our own Banana Abby through Wayside Waifs. As a way of saying thanks, we're donating 10% of the proceeds from your photography session and print orders to this terrific organization, which helps homeless animals find permanent, loving homes.
